5. Preservation of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI)

- i. No Insider when in possession of UPSI shall:
 - a) Either on his behalf or on behalf of any other person trade in Securities of the Bank;
 - b) Communicate, counsel or provide or allow access to, directly or indirectly, any UPSI to/from any person.
- ii. All information shall be handled in-house on a need-to-know basis and no UPSI shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of such person's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.
- iii. UPSI may however be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
 - a) Entail an obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations where the Board is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Bank; or
 - b) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations but where the Board is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Bank and the information that constitute UPSI is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
- iv. Any person in receipt of UPSI pursuant to a "legitimate purpose" shall be considered an "Insider" for purposes of these Regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such UPSI in compliance with the Regulations.
- v. The Board shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose set out above in Para 5(ii) and shall not otherwise Trade in Securities of the Bank when in possession of UPSI.

- vi. The Board of Directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the nature of UPSI and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the names of such persons with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law, where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks, such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database for 8 years after completion of relevant transactions.
- vii. Need to know: The Designated Persons, who are privy to UPSI, shall handle the same strictly on a “Need to Know” basis. This means the UPSI shall be disclosed only to those persons who need to know the same in furtherance of a legitimate purpose, the course of performance or discharge of their duty and whose possession of UPSI will not in any manner give rise to a conflict of interest or likelihood of misuse of the information.
- viii. Limited access to confidential information:
 - a) Soft copies of files must have adequate security by way of login and password, etc.
 - b) Confidential information shall be kept fully secured.
 - c) Norms for maintenance of electronic records and systems as may be prescribed by the IT Department shall be confirmed to
- ix. Chinese wall: To prevent the misuse of UPSI, the Bank has adopted a “Chinese Wall” policy which separates those departments such as Accounts Department, Compliance Department, Credit Department, Digital Banking Department, Information Technology Department, (including DR Site) Integrated Treasury, International Banking Division, MIS Department, Operations & Services Department, PD & RM Department, Risk Management Department, and Secretarial Section, which routinely have access to UPSI, from other departments. Other departments providing services, considered “public areas”.

6. Restrictions and procedures for Designated persons while dealing in Bank’s Securities

- i. All Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives shall conduct all their dealings in the Securities of the Bank only within a valid trading window, within the threshold limit prescribed hereunder and not during the Prohibited Period (as defined below), except as provided in a Trading Plan formulated.
 - a) Valid trading window period shall mean a period other than the Prohibited Period.
 - b) Prohibited period means:
 - Period beginning from the end of every quarter till 48 hours from the time the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is made public,
 - Period which is considered and approved by the Board and informed to the Stock Exchanges.
 - Such other period as may be specified by the Compliance Officer from time to time.
- ii. The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of the valid trading window to all the Designated Persons of the Bank when he / she determines that a Designated Person or a class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such Securities to which such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information relates.
- iii. Additionally, the trading window shall be closed in particular for a designated person or class of Designated Persons when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI, for such periods.
- iv. The valid trading window shall remain closed during the time the Price Sensitive Information remains un-published, as determined by the Compliance Officer. The valid trading window shall be opened after a minimum of 48 hours after the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is made public.
- v. All Designated Persons (including their Immediate Relatives) shall conduct all their dealings in the Securities only when the valid trading window is open and no Designated Person shall deal in the Securities during the period when the valid trading window is closed or during any other period as may be specified by the Compliance Officer from time to time.

- vi. Despite the valid trading window being open, Designated Persons (and their Immediate Relatives) would only be allowed to Trade, in excess of the threshold limits of Rs. 10 Lakhs in Market Value, subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer and provided that they are not in possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information at the time they carry out the transaction.
- vii. The trading window restrictions mentioned herein shall not apply in respect of transactions specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the proviso to sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 4 of the Regulations and in respect of a pledge of shares for a bonafide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by the SEBI.
- viii. Trading Window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.
- ix. The gap between clearance of accounts by Audit Committee and Meeting of Board of Directors shall be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

7. Policy for determination of Legitimate Purposes:

- i. The term “legitimate purpose” shall include sharing of UPSI in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants. In any case, such sharing shall not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of the Regulations.
- ii. Any person in receipt of UPSI pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered an “insider” for purposes of the Regulations
- iii. The Bank shall execute a confidentiality agreement with such persons, to maintain confidentiality of such UPSI in compliance with the Regulations.
- iv. Any person who receives UPSI knowing it to be an UPSI shall be deemed to have received notice from the Bank of the requirement to maintain confidentiality and shall be deemed to have agreed to such confidentiality requirements if he received such UPSI

8. Trading Plan

- i. An insider shall be entitled and have the option to formulate a trading plan for trading in Securities of the Bank and present it to the Compliance Officer (mail id: cs@tmbank.in), for approval and public disclosure, pursuant to which Trades may be carried out on his / her behalf in accordance with such Trading Plan. By doing so, the possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information received subsequent to framing the said Trading Plan would not prohibit the execution of such Trades that he/she had pre-decided even before the possession of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.
- ii. The Trading Plan shall:
 - a) not entail commencement of Trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - b) not entail trading of Securities for the period between the 20th day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Bank and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - c) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - d) not entail overlap of any period for which another Trading Plan is already in existence;
 - e) set out either the value of Trades to be effected or the number of Securities to be Traded along with the nature of the Trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such Trades shall be effected; and
 - f) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- iii. The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the Trading Plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any Trade in the Securities outside the scope of the Trading Plan.
- iv. The implementation of the Trading Plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the Trading Plan, the Insider was in possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and the said information has not become Generally Available Information at the time of the commencement of implementation of the Trading Plan.
- v. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information becomes Generally Available Information and the same is confirmed by the Compliance Officer.

9. Process for how and when people are brought 'inside' on sensitive transactions

The Compliance Officer in consultation with the MD & CEO of the Bank shall decide on how and when any person(s) should be brought 'inside' on any proposed or on-going sensitive transaction(s).

A person(s) shall be brought inside on any proposed or on-going sensitive transaction(s) of the Bank who may be existing or proposed partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants etc. for legitimate purpose, which shall include the following:

- a. in the ordinary course of business;
- b. in furtherance of performance of duty(ies);
- c. for discharge of legal obligation(s);
- d. for any other genuine or reasonable purpose as may be determined by the Managing Director of the Bank;
- e. for any other purpose as may be prescribed under the Securities Regulations or Companies Act, 2013 or any other law for the time being in force, in this behalf, as may be amended from time to time.

10. Pre-clearance of trades & Contra Trades

- i. All Designated Persons of the Bank who intend to trade/deal in the securities of the Bank, when the trading window is open and the value of trade is above 2,000 Securities or Rupees 10 lakh in value (market value) whichever is less, should get the transaction pre-cleared by Compliance Officer by submitting an application as per 'Form F' and an undertaking as per 'Form G'. The designated person shall not be entitled to apply for pre-clearance while in possession of UPSI.
- ii. The Compliance Officer shall not approve any proposed Trade by Designated Person, if the Compliance Officer determines that such person is in possession of UPSI.
- iii. The pre-clearance approval obtained shall be valid for a period of seven days within which the trade has to be executed after which the designated person must secure fresh pre-clearance of transaction.
- iv. Holding Period of Securities

- a. All Designated Persons who trade in securities of the Bank shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All such persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Bank at any time.

In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

- b. Restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.
- c. In case of subscription in the Primary Market (Initial/ Follow-on Public Offers), the above mentioned entities shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.
- d. The Compliance Officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted if such relaxation violates the Regulations.
- v. Any trade by an Insider / Designated Person in contravention to preclearance procedure as laid above shall attract penalties as envisaged in this Code.

11. Disclosure & Reporting

i. Initial Disclosure
